NEWCOMERS BY SCORE IN CITY

The most unprecedented influx of new comers to Phoenix, is being noted by officials of the Santa Fe, Prescott and Phoenix railroad. According to General Agent W. S. Goldworthy, there are more people arriving daily in Phoenix than at any time in many months past. There are more people coming to this city just now than at any time last fall.

The regular train arriving from Ash Fork Thursday night, with passengers from the east carried 175 persons, not more than twenty-five of whom were traveling on the return portion of a ticket. In other words, of the 175, there came 150 to Phoenix on one way tickets.

In the sleeping car from Ash Fork arriving here yesterday morning, there were twenty-eight passengers and the agent at Ash Fork was obliged to turn away many more desiring accommodations on that car. The chair car was also well filled.

Hotels of Phoenix are already well filled and there have been days during the past week when some of the leading hotels were hard put to it to provide accommodations for the arriving guests. The continuance of excessively warm weather in the east may have had something for the early travel. Tourists arriving here express themselves as surprised at the climatic conditions here.

Houses and apartments are also filling rapidly and many real estate owners are having a hard time to find desirable properties for rent. It is said that better rental prices are being secured right now than it was possible to obtain last season. There is every indication that Phoenix is on the verge of one of the best winter seasons in the history of this city.

RAIN STOPS RACES

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

SYRACUSE, Sept. 15.—Rain compelled the postponement of the Grand Circuit races at the New York state fair today. Tomorrow's card includes eleven races, nine for amateur drivers, and two class events, a 2:10 pace and a 2:06 trot.

A total of 61 horses are carded to start, the largest number at a Grand Circuit meeting in a single day in several years. Evelyn W. and Annie Bradford, two former world's champion pacers, will meet in the free-for-all pace. Harry K. Devereux of Cleveland, president of the Grand Circuit, will drive Annie Bradford.

Hire a little salesman at The Republican office. A Want Ad will see more customers than you can.

MARKET NEWS

By R. Allyn Lewis

This market is so big that opinions are worthless. We see strong evidence of turning the public towards railroads. This is evident by the move in U. P. and Reading. Earnings not dividends, put up properties. For this reason we look for a big rise in Western Union. On its earnings, we think it will. Yesterday's reaction should come in a bull market but ever yman now except in special stocks, had better do his own guessing.

Expect hedge selling here and possibly break like last Saturday. GRAIN: Commission houses took off-ferings on break. Market is nervous and feels effect of tighter outside trade. Outside markets have lost their early advance. Corn has lost part of its early advance. Trade generally believes that little damage has been done to the crop by frost.

Union Pacific sold up to 146; New York Central to 108 1/2; Southern Pacific, 100 1/2; Atchafalpa, 104 1/2. When moves like these come in the standard rails, the public are surely in the market. The present market has brushed aside all precedents and is one of the broadest the writer has ever seen. Verde Extension was not so active but fluctuated between 99 and 100, last sale at 100.
